

Muhammad Shaikh

1809 Jalna Blvd, London, ON.

647-779-1178. shafiq.shaikh88@gmail.com

Objective

To continue working as an RPN providing safe and effective nursing care to elderly residents in an LTC home setting.

Highlights of Skills

- Flexible and adaptable.
- Ability to prioritize work or nursing care.
- More than seven years of experience working at LTC.
- Good communication skills to develop rapport with clients and their families.
- Good in critical thinking, problem-solving, and decision-making.
- Experience in providing care to clients with dementia, mental health issues, cardiovascular and pulmonary disease.
- Keen learner, punctual, and courteous.
- Good knowledge of standards of nursing practice and applicable healthcare legislation

Relevant experience

Nov 2022 to present	Agency nurse	WC4U staffing solution
March 2024 to Oct 2024	RPN	Victoria Hospital, acute medicine
April 2019 to 2023	RPN	The Village of Glendale Crossing.
2017 to April 2019	Casual RPN	Secored Trails LTC, Ingersoll
5015 to 2017	visiting nurse	Saint Elizabeth Health Care, Toronto

Experience at The Village of Glendale Crossing LTC

-
- Receiving shift reports from the previous shift nurse and reading 24 hours report on PCC.
- Checking physician's order or nursing alerts from resident's charts.
- Worked on Point Click Care system to do resident's assessments, administer medication, documentation, creating eMAR and TAR orders, wound assessments, referrals, checking follow up question reports, look back reports, UDAs, dashboard, MDS and others.
- Developed good relations with residents and their families and called POAs to take their consents for new medication prescriptions and for any other related issues.
- Prepared and refilled the medication and treatment carts.
- Collaborating with the Charge nurse and other staff whenever ne

Duties performed at Saint Elizabeth Health Care

- Worked as a visiting nurse and as a shift nurse at home health care setting.
- Checking vitals, making all assessments, checking Ventilator setting on ALS clients.
- Tracheostomy care, tracheal and oral suctioning, ventilator care, irrigating and changing foley catheter, feeding through G tube by kangaroo pump and IV administration through sapphire pump .
- Documenting progress notes in client's chart.
- Sending faxes to CCAC/LHIN for supplies order and communicating with the client's physician for any concern.

Education

2014	Practical Nursing Diploma	Humber College ITAL, Toronto
1998	Masters in Clinical Microbiology	Karachi University.
1995	Bachelors in Microbiology	Karachi University

Professional development

Yearly	completion of all the required courses to work in LTCs e.g Surge learning courses
2024	Tracheal Suctioning, Manual Ventilation, phlebotomy technique to draw blood samples	Victoria Hospital
2016	Invasive Mechanical Ventilation	West Park Healthcare Centre
2017	Drug Administration, Wound dressing	Saint Elizabeth Health Care
2019	Wound dressing on a continual basis	Schlegel Villages
Valid	First Aid and CPR level "C"	Red Cross

Computer skills

Word pad, Office excel, Power point, emailing

Means of transportation

Have a G license, own a car and can travel in severe weather.

References available upon request